

Fifth Annual CNS Educator's Forum
Westin Arlington Gateway

Monday, July 16, 2018 from 1:00 PM -6: 00 PM

1:00-1:05 PM

Setting the Stage

Susan Dresser, Chair, Planning Committee for Educator's Forum and CNS Summit
Anne Hysong, President, NACNS

1:05-2:25 PM

Panel - Report from the 3rd Edition Statement on Clinical Nurse Specialist Practice and Education – Key Issues for Faculty Consideration

Carol Manchester, Chair, NACNS Task Force for the Revision of the NACNS Statement on Education and Practice (CNS Statement Task Force) – 7 min
Jane Walker, Member, CNS Statement Task Force – 7 min

Attendees will discuss key issues at their tables

Roundtable Discussion: Integration of Revised CNS Statement Components – Education Guidelines and Core Competencies

-What tools and resources are needed to integrate the core competencies and CNS statement within CNS education programs?

2:25-3:35 PM

Panel - Success Strategies for CNS Programs

Ginger Pierson, West Coast University – 5 min
Lynn Mohr, Rush University – 5 min
Susan Dresser, University of Oklahoma – 5 min

Attendees will discuss key issues at their tables

Roundtable Discussion – Strategies for Success

What success strategies will enhance the growth and development of CNS education programs?

3:35-3:50 PM

Break

3:50-4:40 PM

Impact of NACNS – Issues and Initiatives that Impact NACNS Education

A. CNS Certification for Family Across the Lifespan 3:50 – 4:05 PM

Lola Coke, Member, Family Across the Lifespan (FALS) Task Force -

B. Malnutrition Awareness 4:05 – 4:20 PM

Susan Smith, Chair, NACNS Malnutrition Task Force; 2018 – 2020 NACNS Board Member
– 7 min.

Group discussion 4:20 – 4:40 PM

4:40 – 5:50 PM

Panel - NSNA Outreach – Lessons Learned and What Next?

Anne Hysong, President, NACNS
Susan Smith, 2018 – 2020 NACNS Board Member
Ginger Pierson, 2018 – 2020 NACNS Board Member

- How can NACNS work with CNS faculty and programs to raise awareness of the CNS Role with NSNA and beyond?
- Is there a way to develop a consortium with the intent of raising the awareness of the CNS role and programs?
- How can NACNS help advertise your programs to potential students?

5:50-6:00 PM

Evaluations and Closing

June 7, 2018