

Continuing to Advance the Unique Expertise of the CNS

Happy day three of CNS Week! NACNS is dedicated to making sure you have the resources and guidance that you need to advance your unique expertise and enhance the value that you contribute to health care as a clinical nurse specialist.

As an NACNS member, you have access to a variety of resources that provide you with the opportunity to increase your visibility and influence, earn or maintain your professional credentials, and enhance your leadership potential.

Deadline Approaching: Call for Nominations

NACNS is the unified voice for advancing clinical nurse specialist practice and education. The association's work promoting the unique contributions the clinical nurse specialist brings to health care is due to the dedication of our clinical nurse specialist volunteer leaders!

Below is a list of the open positions - click on the position name for more information. Individuals can only run for one elected office, and nominations must be received no later than September 7, 2020.

- President-Elect – (one open position)
