The National Association of Clinical Nurse Specialists (NACNS) is the organization solely dedicated to the interests of the clinical nurse specialist (CNS). NACNS serves as the national authority on CNS practice, education, and research.

NACNS shows the value of the CNS as an APRN.

NACNS embraces full practice authority for all CNSs.

NACNS provides support to individual CNSs, programs preparing CNSs, and entities employing CNSs.

NACNS achieves and maintains member satisfaction through professional and shared governance.
